GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

There is a scheme on foot to combine the Latonia and Newport race track interests and by an infusion of eastern capital place the turf in this vicinity on a sturdy financial basis. Colonel W. E. Applegate, who is at the head of the Latonia race track, is anxious to retire from the local racing game and he is willing to dispose of his interests, while the Newport owners are also willing to sell out if they can obtain a suitable price. For the past two weeks Colonel Applegate has been in communication with representatives of eastern capitalists and efforts have been made to combine the interests of Newport and Latonia and fix a price on the properties. It is proposed to bond the tracks and close one of them permanently to running races. In case the deal is completed Latonia would be selected for race meetings, while Newport would be closed, although the latter might be used for trotting races. The plans for the deal have not yet been matured, but something in the nature of a combine is being attempted, and it is possible it may be successful.—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.

H. Eugene Leigh was in the Hoffman House Thursday afternoon. He was approached by a timid youth who presented a card to him and asked if his name was Leigh. The farmer nodded his head and glanced furtively about as if to escape. The youth, however, gave him no opportunity, but began his conversation at once by asking Mr. Leigh where he could buy a good stable of horses. The latter promptly replied, "There's lots of good ones now, but there won't be any in June. If you're hankering after a stable just grab any of them if the price suits you."

The young man hesitated, got nettled and with some asperity assured Leigh that it was no merry jest; that he possessed ample means and was firmly resolved to become a racing man and enjoy the allurements of the sport. Leigh was nonplussed for the moment, but finally asked: "Why did you come to me?" This was met with, "Oh, I have been told that you are the smartest man that ever came from Illinois, and that what you didn't know about racing and breeding would make Bruce Lowe look like a deuce in a forty-five deck."

It was Leigh's turn to become a bit angry, and he asked: "Are you trying to string me?" The downy youth said: "No. If I was doing that I would ask you to have a drink." "Well, then, what in the devil are you trying to do?" "I am trying to find out what you haven't forgot about racing; I want to hear some of your experiences, get some advice, and buy a stable of race horses."

Leigh dropped into one of the cushioned chairs and glared at the young man as hetestly said:

"This is one of Coulter's jobs; I thought I knew something about racing. When I knew nothing about racing my horses won with amazing frequency, and I had money to breed on an extensive scale, with the result that I soon became satisfied that nobody should breed horses except millionaires, and went back to my old calling of training. Now, there ain't much in this business, although you have a lot of fun at times and there are times when you don't have any fun. All the advice I can give you is to go to a yearling sale, have somebody blindfold you, and bid at random on the youngsters offered, and the chances are that you will select a better lot than the sharp-eyed encyclopedias of racing knowledge that buy yearlings for millionaires. After you have once secured your stable the rest is easy, for if you are successful you will be called a thief, and if you are a failure you will be called a sucker. Good night."—Exchange.

Next Monday the curtain will be rung up for the metropolitan series, and owners and trainers are ready for a shy at the early plums. The local circuit opens at Aqueduct under the auspices of the Queens County Jockey Club and an attractive book has been issued for a meeting of seventeen days. The Carter Handicap, which is the star feature of the opening day, promises to be an unusually interesting event. When the weeding-out process is through it is predicted that there will be a comparatively small but highly select field.

Firearm's admirers are increasing at Morris Park. The speedy son of Rayon d'Or—Fides is in rare shape, thanks to the efforts of his trainer, James Boden, and as he is now a five-year-old the weight should not worry him. Box and May Hempstead, who come next in order of weight, are going along well at Gravesend. W. L. Oliver's sturdy bread-winner, Warrenton, is said to be "breaking watches" at Morris Park, and the other high-weights are rounding to so satisfactorily that it will take considerable guessing to find the winner.

For the Rose Stakes, to be run on the fourth day at Aqueduct, forty-three two-year-old fillies are nominated, and enough of them will be ready to furnish a spectacular dash over the four and a half furlong course. There are forty-nine entries for the Arverne Stakes, scheduled for the sixth day. The event is for three-year-olds, and will be decided over the short seven furlong course. Other stakes that have filled remarkably well are the Canarsie, for two-year-olds, to be run April 24; the Ozone, for two-year-olds, April 26; the Rockaway Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, April 28; the Woodhaven Stakes, for two-year-olds, May 1, and the Flushing Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward, May 3.—New York Sun.

Barney Schreiber has switched jockeys. He sold the contract he had with Henry to W. J. Arkell, the noted publisher, and signed Buchanan to fill the vacancy. Both riders were unknown to the racing world when the present season opened in California. They began by riding outsiders to victory, which soon attracted the attention of the leading owners. Henry will be in Mr. Arkell's employ two years, and will have a chance to measure his skill with the eastern cracks. Mr. Arkell expects to have a strong stable. Buchanan, who succeeds Henry in Barney's colors, is a native son. His father is a railroad conductor, who lives not far from the Oakland track. The young jockey is certainly fortunate in signing with a man of Schreiber's standing on the turf.—Frisco Bulletin.

Ed Corrigan has made a liberal offer for Vesuvian, Geyser's half brother. Vesuvian is an extremely fast three-year-old. He was developed by W. B. Jennings, and has run a number of fast races at the Frisco tracks. If Corrigan buys Vesuvian, the colt will be shipped to England with the string that the big Chicago horseman will campaign on the English turf this year. Hot Spring, the dam of Geyser, Vesuvian and Lavator, was formerly owned by Dr. C. W. Crowley, of St. Louis. Hot Spring is by Rebel. She was bred by the late Colonel Cottrell, the Mobile turfman. Hot Spring is now a member of the broodmare band of Rancho del Paso, J. B. Haggin's famous California breeding establishment.

J. Storey Curtis, the South African millionaire, is the owner of a very promising two-year-old colt by Owes—Carrissima, that is being trained by Gwynn R. Tompkins. Tompkins has his string at the Bennings track. Curtis campaigned a stable on the metropolitan tracks a

*Coupled in betting. Winner—B. c. by Ordway—Caprice. Went to post at 3:20. At post 23 minutes. Start fair. Won driving; second easily. Gwynne was favored by the going. He went to the front easily in the last furlong, but was under a drive to stall off Christmas Carol's rush at the end. The latter finished strongly. Shamokin ran away in the first three breakaways, going a quarter each time. He was tiring at the end. Allie H. was eased up when Seaton saw he had no chance. Rough Rider ran a poor race. Scratched—17300 Slow Time, 108; 17303 Nabocklish, 99; Loo Kate, 94. Overweights—Shamokin, 2 pounds; Merriness, 1. Gwynne, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 1/2 to 1. Daly entry, place, 3 to 1; show, evens. About finished strongly and would have been second in three more strides. Scurry was swerving all over the track in the last sixteenth. Moor did not seem to like the going. Scratched—Sweepstakes, 99. Winner—Br. g. by Pontiac—Calypso. Went to post at 4:35. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Sir Christopher was best, at home in the going and well ridden. He held the lead without an effort and was drawing away at the end. Lexington Pirate ran well and is in good form. Racebud finished strongly and got third place in the last few strides. Speedmast and Diminutive tired. The latter lost ground by going to the outside at the stretch turn. Dutch Comedian was bumped into and knocked out of any chance at the far turn. Scratched—17286 Mouzeltoft, 103. (17105) Claroba, 101. Overweights—Racebud, 2 pounds; Speedmast, 2. Sir Christopher, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Lexington Pirate, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Won ridden out; second easily. First Whip went to the front when asked but had to be hustled along in the last sixteenth. Sweet Caporal got the worst of the start and was rushed too fast to get up in the first furlong. She would probably have won with an equal break. Overweights—First Whip, 2 pounds. Corrected weights—Tony Honing, 123 pounds. First Whip, place, out. Sweet Caporal, place, 1 to 3; show, out. Tony Honing, place, 3 to 5; show, out.

stable then was the English-bred sprinter Royal Stag, who was a pretty fair sort of a race horse.
Curtis jumped into prominence three years ago
by paying $10,000 for a yearling brother to Orna-

Method and was sent to England. He never amounted to much in his two or three-year-old a race horse this year. Mr. Curtis has a farm
